

Why Exhibit at our EXPO

Over 30 vendors will take part and there will be dozens of educational seminars and forums throughout the day. Our dynamic venue will benefit both the commercial and residential professionals. This annual expo is geared exclusively towards real estate consumers and property owners. Having an opportunity to hear and meet our community is a major attraction in itself — a great event to introduce and grow your business in the Chinese American community. There is no other venue like this.

By sponsoring the 2016 CREAA Real Estate Expo you will:

- Meet new clients
- Deepen relationship with current clients
- Improve your brand awareness
- Market your products and services
- Establish a presence in your target market
- Network with other real estate professionals

There is limited space available for exhibitors, so please hurry and register to ensure that you and your business don't miss out on this opportunity. Complete the registration form included in this packet by April 30, 2016.
